Dr. Terry Donat is the first physician certified as an Illinois Professional Emergency Manager. He is trained in acute Radiation Emergency Medicine, the Medical Management of Chemical and Biological Casualties and as a past National Disaster Life Support Instructor. He also serves as an external resource and speaker for both the FBI Chicago Field Office WMD Coordinator and the FBI WMD Directorate Biological Countermeasure Unit. He is a lifetime member of the Special Operations Medical Association (SOMA); serves as the Health and Public Health Sector Chief for InfraGard Chicago; serves as James Terbush, MD MPH, as co-chair of the Healthcare Industry Advisory Group of the InfraGard National Disaster Resilience Council and is a member of the Healthcare and Public Health Sector Coordinating Council - DHS/DHHS. He is keenly interested in the promising capabilities of DNA data storage, as well as assessing those threats, risks, and vulnerabilities of infrastructure and evolving dual-use technologies relevant to homeland and national security.
